ABOUT NABJ

Founded in 1975, the National Association of Black Journalists (NABJ) is the largest and oldest advocacy and training organization for journalists of color in the United States, representing approximately 4,000+ members. NABJ is dedicated to championing the rights and advancement of Black journalists, media professionals, and students worldwide, while offering essential year-round training focused on excellence in journalism.

NABJ'S COMMITMENT

NABJ remains steadfast in its mission to empower and uplift Black voices in journalism, ensuring that their contributions are recognized and celebrated in the industry.

- Fostering Community: Strengthening connections among Black journalists, student journalists, journalism educators, media professionals, supporters, and partners.
- Promoting Fairness: Advocating for media sensitivity with respect to equity and fairness in the workplace for Black journalists.
- Enhancing Opportunities: Expanding job prospects and recruitment efforts for seasoned, young, and aspiring Black journalists and media professionals, while ensuring ongoing professional development and training.
- Increasing Representation: Working to elevate the number of Black journalists and media professionals in management including C-suite and Board opportunities and encouraging entrepreneurial ventures.
- Celebrating Excellence: Recognizing and honoring outstanding achievements within the Black journalism community and the broader media industry, especially in delivering balanced coverage of the Black experience and society at large.
- Inspiring Future Generations: Collaborating with high schools and colleges to identify and encourage Black students to pursue careers in journalism and communication, while advocating for diverse faculty and curricula.
- Providing Resources: Offering informational, educational, and training services to the general public to promote awareness and understanding of the media landscape.

ABOUT THE EVENT

The 2025 NABJ Convention and Career Fair offers a robust array of programs and services, including employment opportunities, professional development workshops and networking events to help our members remain in the vanguard of the rapidly changing journalism and media-related professions.

WHY PARTNER WITH NABJ?

- Align with NABJ to advance your organization's priorities
- Establish new or strengthen existing relationships with leaders in media and journalism
- Recruit top talent in a broad range of disciplines representing broadcast, digital, film, visual, print media as well as public relations and marketing
- Increase brand visibility and awareness among influencers and storytellers
- Demonstrate commitment to community and support the future of journalism

Hall of Fame Induction & Luncheon

$15,000 Co-branding Sponsor (Limit 3)

Our Hall of Fame Induction and Luncheon pays homage to legendary Black journalists and communicators who have made outstanding contributions to the industry.

Newsmaker Plenary

$65,000 Title Partner

$35,000 Co-Branding

This high-profile and extremely popular session features a keynote speaker or a panel discussion with newsmakers on hot topics in the media industry. This session is well-attended. Partners have the opportunity to greet convention attendees and provide opening remarks.

The W.E.B. Du Bois Session

$55,000 Exclusive Title Partner

The W.E.B. DuBois Session honors the life and legacy of its namesake, who was a passionate civil rights activist, educator, writer, editor, poet, and scholar. This annual, highly anticipated session attracts some of the nation's foremost thought leaders, newsmakers and influencers from around the country to offer candid and in-depth dialogue about issues impacting the Black community and beyond.

NABJ Gospel Brunch

$50,000 Title Partner

$10,000 Co-branding

An NABJ tradition, the Gospel Brunch is one of the convention highlights. Attendees flock to this uplifting experience to enjoy a brunch buffet and inspirational entertainment from leading recording artists.

PANELS & WORKSHOPS

Position your organization as a thought leader by providing content for workshops, panels, fireside chats, learning labs, and leadership trainings including opportunities for specialty offerings in health, climate, education, local news, visual journalism, sports, business, and arts and entertainment.

Professional Development Breakfast or Luncheon

$40,000 per meal function (Food & Beverage included)

Attendees begin their day with breakfast and take a break midday with lunch, all while engaging in stimulating dialogue on cutting-edge topics with experts in a wide range of fields. Since the number of these meal functions is limited, they attract a significant audience. NABJ approves all topics and an NABJ member serves as the moderator.

Workshops, Panels, Fireside Chats

$30,000 – 90-minute workshop

Workshops, panels, and fireside chats are key pillars of the convention. Partners may design the session content and select the panelists and the moderator. The moderator must be an NABJ member. NABJ approves all topics and retains editorial control of all sessions.

Full/Half-day Workshops (Applications-based)

$50,000 Full-day

$35,000 Half-day

Applications-based workshops (academies, hands-on training, focus groups, etc.) are only open to members who have applied and been accepted into the partner-designed program that takes place during the Convention. This intensive half-day or full-day programming dives deep into advanced industry applications and strategic approaches for real-world success. Guided by industry leaders, the workshops include hands-on activities, case studies, and collaborative problem-solving tailored to specific goals. NABJ approves all topics.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Your signed agreement confirms your placement into the Convention. Upon receipt of your agreement, you'll receive access to the Partner Portal, where you may submit workshop/panel assets (bios, headshots, titles, and descriptions for all sponsored workshops and events. All assets must be received by WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30, 2025, to ensure full promotion.

NABJ Black Male Media Project

$50,000 Title Partner

$25,000 Co-branding

This is your opportunity to create a convention workshop to explore media coverage of Black men and boys, including stereotypes from police violence to education, wealth, and Black fatherhood. We will delve into the good, the bad, and best practices for covering these wide-ranging issues.

NABJ Leadership Academy

$65,000 Partner (Ask about co-partner opportunities.)

A series of workshops designed to prepare aspiring newsroom leaders to become news directors and general managers. Student Multimedia Project

$50,000 Exclusive Title Partner

$25,000 Co-branding

Catch their evening broadcast or grab a coffee and a copy of their daily convention newspaper (The Monitor)!

Through a highly competitive selection process, outstanding university or college journalism and communication students are afforded an opportunity to receive a weeklong, all-expenses-paid hands-on reporting and digital skills training. During the week of convention, the students and their professional mentors jointly produce a daily television newscast, newspaper and website that focus on the conference events, as well as local Cleveland news. This once-in-a-lifetime experience activates meaningful, professional relationships with veteran journalist mentors. Students participate in boot camps prior to the Convention that focus on news-gathering skills such as photojournalism, social media, and on-camera interviewing. Students are also coached on career development, including job interviewing skills, resume writing, and relationship building.

High School Journalism Workshop (JSHOP)

$25,000 Title Partner

$7,500 Co-branding

Representation Matters!

The JSHOP is a four-day workshop that provides an enlightening, informative, hands-on, and challenging introduction of the journalism profession to local, Cleveland high school students. Our backpack journalists learn multimedia journalism fundamentals for newsgathering, writing, photography, video production, radio, graphic design, editing and social media. Professional journalists, educators and journalism college students provide mentorship and supervision.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Host screenings of your films for an interactive audience that values storytelling. From sneak peeks to full screenings, NABJ's Film Festival offers a unique platform to share the Black experience, entertain, and inform. Boost buzz by showcasing leading actors, screenwriters, and directors participating in informative clips and conversation panels where insights can be shared in an interactive format. NABJ approves all topics.

$25,000 Major Motion Picture

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Sponsorship opportunities may have more than one corporate partner as noted. NABJ reserves the right to select co-partners but will give careful consideration to requests from any partner where there is a desire not to co-partner with another specific company on an activity or event.

Exclusive and Title branding are available at certain price points. Please note that indicating an interest in an event or product does not guarantee you will be able to secure the branding of that event. We will make every effort to accommodate your request. Availability is on a first-come, first-served basis. NABJ does not recognize the right of first refusal by any partner, past or present.

NABJ welcomes input from partners as we do from the community as a whole. NABJ retains final approval of all topics of discussion, selection of panel experts, speakers and other aspects of creative and editorial control regarding branded events, workshops and panels. NABJ reserves the right to choose one or more panelists or moderators for sessions. As a non-profit professional and educational organization, NABJ greatly appreciates corporate and foundation support for its mission, goals, programs and activities. Acceptance by NABJ of any financial or in-kind contribution from partners or funders does not constitute an endorsement of their policies, products or services. It is understood and acknowledged there should be no expectation on the part of our partners or funders for any special treatment in news or media coverage, which would be against journalism's ethical standards.

NABJ does not guarantee any level of convention participation in partner-supported sessions and events. Partner-provided content and assets must be received by NABJ by the stated deadlines or the deliverables offered may be forfeited. All sessions and events are subject to filming, recording, playback, and being photographed. NABJ maintains exclusive rights.

DEADLINES

PARTNER PORTAL

The #NABJ25 Partner Portal for panel and Convention event submissions opens on Monday, February 10, 2025. The portal receives titles, descriptions, headshots, bios, etc., for sponsored workshops and events. All assets must be received by Wednesday, April 30, 2025. Note: Branding, promotions and other benefits may be delayed if deadlines are not met.

HAVE QUESTIONS OR NEED ADDITIONAL INFORMATION?

Faye Sigers, NABJ's Director of Development, is available to customize a partnership package that creates a win/win/win experience for the partner, convention attendees and NABJ.
